WHAT'S NEW AT THE LIBRARY?

Fine Art Workshop: The Portraiture Class in Earth Tones Saturday, April 12th

Local artist Victoria Papale will instruct on how to draw and paint the human face in this one-day workshop. Victoria will give a brief talk about the history of earth tones. She will provide pictures of faces for students to choose from and will demonstrate how to properly sketch a face on drawing paper. She will also show how to blend the colors and begin a portrait in paints. Each student will be given attention during the workshop. Participants will need to bring all supplies. Herb Gardening Lecture and Demo Wednesday, April 23rd

Master Gardener Joe Alvarez will be speaking about herb gardening for ornamental, culinary, and medicinal purposes in this lecture and Q&A. Different types of pots (terra cotta, plastic, hanging baskets, ornamental) and small plants will be displayed. Joe will also discuss "costal landscapes", the practice of adding herbs to annual and perennial beds on the barrier islands. No registration required. Click here for more information!

Sherlock Holmes High Tea & Documentary

Tuesday, April 29th

Enjoy refreshments and the movie "The Secrets of Scotland Yard". Get inside the most famous police headquarters in the world. This documentary follows police historians as they retrace the steps of some of the world's earliest detectives, finds out how the Yard used every crime-fighting technique in its repertoire to stop the biggest heist in history, and reopens classified files to reveal how the Yard's detective decisions continue to foil sophisticated criminal activity. Registration required. Click here for more information!
