Director's Report for January 2010

January's circulation's (9401) increased by 8% from December's (8735), and increased by 8% from this time last year (8702).

On January 25, 2010, the library received a certificate of appreciation from the Holy Redeemer Food Patron for serving as a food donation collection point.

Melanie completed the course "How to Get Organized" from Rockhurst University Continuing Education Center. She also completed an e-course on personel communications from Webjunction/South Jersey Regional Library Cooperative. Michelle completed an e-course from WebJunction titled Rightful Employment Termination. Both Michelle and Linda are currently enrolled in an HTML programming e-course.

On January 2, Chris Pidgeon's position was expanded to full time employment. Chris' payate rate remains the same.