

Month in Review – History Center – November 2009

Introduction to Avalon Tourism Guide written

- The History Center's Director, Mr. J. Angemi, wrote an introduction for the 2010 Avalon Tourism guide book. The piece highlights Avalon history from pre colonial contact up through the present.

History Center Rack Cards created

- A rack card is a document used for commercial advertising. The History Center rack card, highlighting the mission and goals of the institution, will be distributed to museums throughout the area as well as traditional tourism institutions.

Historical Society Journal created, year in review 2009.

- Center Director oversaw and created a year in review journal for the Historical Society, highlighting programming, preservation, and education initiatives of the past year. It has gone to press and will be out in time for the holidays. Interested parties should contact the Center for a copy.

Year in Review cover 2009

M.A.P. site visit to occur in December 1-3

- Due to scheduling difficulties the October M.A.P. visit has been rescheduled for early December. Senior A.A.M. site reviewer, Vivian Lee Stevens, will visit the History Center and make her recommendations regarding collections, exhibits, and future accreditation. This is a crucial step in the Center's future bid for museum recognition in the Mid Atlantic region and beyond. The time set for this is December 1st, 2nd, and possibly 3rd.

Founding documents drafts prepared

- A set of founding documents; Museum Management Policy, Long Range Plan (5 year), Disaster Preparedness Plan, are all in the final phases of completion. Within the coming months these drafts will be reviewed and accepted, with board recommendations