

Month in Review – History Center –July 2013

Events

- The Avalon History Center and Center director J. Angemi were involved in 4 programs for the month of July. These included Mr. Angemi running a seminar about Avalon during WW II, Bits & Pieces (a children’s archaeology class), Valhalla Pirate troupe’s Age of Piracy, and M. Buckholz’ Josephine: from Washington Working Girl to Fisherman’s wife.

New additions to fire exhibit

- The exhibit highlighting the 100 year anniversary of the Avalon Fire Department has acquired 3 more loaned pieces. The pieces, on loan from Center friend C. Ganes, are quite unique objects featuring early 20th century fire helmets from England, Egypt, and Switzerland.
